CATHEDRAL CITY'S TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY DEC. 3RD IN TOWN SQUARE

The crisp air will be filled with the voices of the Christmas and a spectacular musical concert at Cathedral City's Annual Tree Lighting event, Thurs., Dec. 3rd, in Cathedral City's Town Square. The community celebration begins at 6pm.

Santa Claus is arriving special delivery courtesy of the Cathedral City Fire Department. "Santa" will assist Mayor Kathleen DeRosa and the City Council light the Christmas tree. Santa Claus will greet children and listen to their Christmas wish lists.

The California Desert Chorale will perform a 45 minute musical medley of holiday hymns and songs. The Desert Chorale enters its 16th season of bringing fine choral music to the Coachella Valley. Its members are composed of experienced and professional vocalists, and working with great choral directors such as Roger Wagner, Leonard Bernstein, Paul Salamunovich, Olaf, Christiansen, Daniel Moe and Margaret Hills. The United States Marine Corps, an annual holiday favorite, will perform a 45 minute concert featuring traditional and contemporary favorites. Enlisted Conductor Gny. Sgt. Richard Nunley will lead the 46 piece orchestra.

Cathedral City businesses - - Starbucks, Big Mamas, the Desert IMAX Theatre, and, The Mary Pickford Theatre are providing goodies for the audience. Children's Discovery Museum of the Desert will have holiday arts and crafts projects for children.

The price of admission, per person, is one can or one box of non-perishable food. All food donations will benefit F.I.N.D.(Food In Need of Distribution). Free parking is available at the Civic Center Parking Structure. For more information call 770-0346.
